BLIZZARD OF '78

On January 26, 1978, the biggest blizzard in the history of Ohio hit Northwest Ohio and surrounding areas. 17 inches of snow fell and was blown into drifts by 50 to 70 mph winds. People in and around the area were stranded both at home and at shelters. After the storm had died down, road crews and private contractors worked many hours to scrape out the roads so that they were passable. Snowmobiles ran errands to deliver groceries, and medicine or to transport people to shelters or to jobs. It was a storm that will be remembered for many years.

Jr. Sr. Prom
May 6-7, 1978

The Juniors' hard work, disagreements, and last minute changes turned out a successful Prom. It started with a dinner, formal dance, informal dance, then off to Bryan for the movie, "Bananas," to Archbold for bowling, and finally to Jeff Short's house for breakfast.

Mr. Morlock, vice-president of Brubaker and Brubaker thinks of life only as a money-making proposition. Parent's Notes

Venus

Venus:

When we saw you graduate it was one of the happiest events in our lives. It is a great accomplishment. We have seen you put a lot of time into your school work. You've spoken well of your teachers most of the time and been a good girl. We have no complaints. But now a new phase of your life is about to begin, and life will get more complicated. It will be more or less what you make it. This world we are living in will seem different once you get out into it. You are a good Christian girl and we hope that the world will not change you. And always remember to look for the challenge that each day will bring.

Our deepest love,
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Zuvers

Rich

Rich:

Do you remember those Sunday night suppers at McCoy's? You always seem to have time to say thank you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Kenny

Kenny:

Well here you are, out of school and all grownup. We have had our little ups and downs but managed to get through them by working at them together. You made us very happy when you were nominated into the Who's Who of American High School Students. Our proudest moment was when you received your diploma. We're proud of you. We always will be, for no matter what, you have not ever let us down.

Our love always,
Mom and Bob

Cheri

Cheryl

Cheri:

Cheri, for eighteen years you have brought much love and happiness to our home. Your Mom, Dad, Brother, and Sisters wish you the best.

Love,
Your Family

Susan

Cheryl:

Congratulations on a job well done. You have excelled academically and socially far beyond our hopes and expectations. May God continue to bless you in your future endeavors.

Love,
Mom and Dad Rix

Paula

Susan:

It always drove us crazy for you to wait until the last minute to do your homework. And on bad days you were always hoping that you would not have school, especially during snow storms.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stambaugh

Rick

Paula:

You are our baby daughter in whom we are well pleased. We love you. May your life be a reflection of the glory of God.

Mr. and Mrs. James VanAssche

Rick:

We realize you have faults but to us you're one of the best. You have always had a lot of drive and ambition, you have worked hard and long, and you have set your goals high. Don't change, just improve on the qualities God gave you and with His help you will accomplish whatever you set out to do.

Love,
Mom and Dad

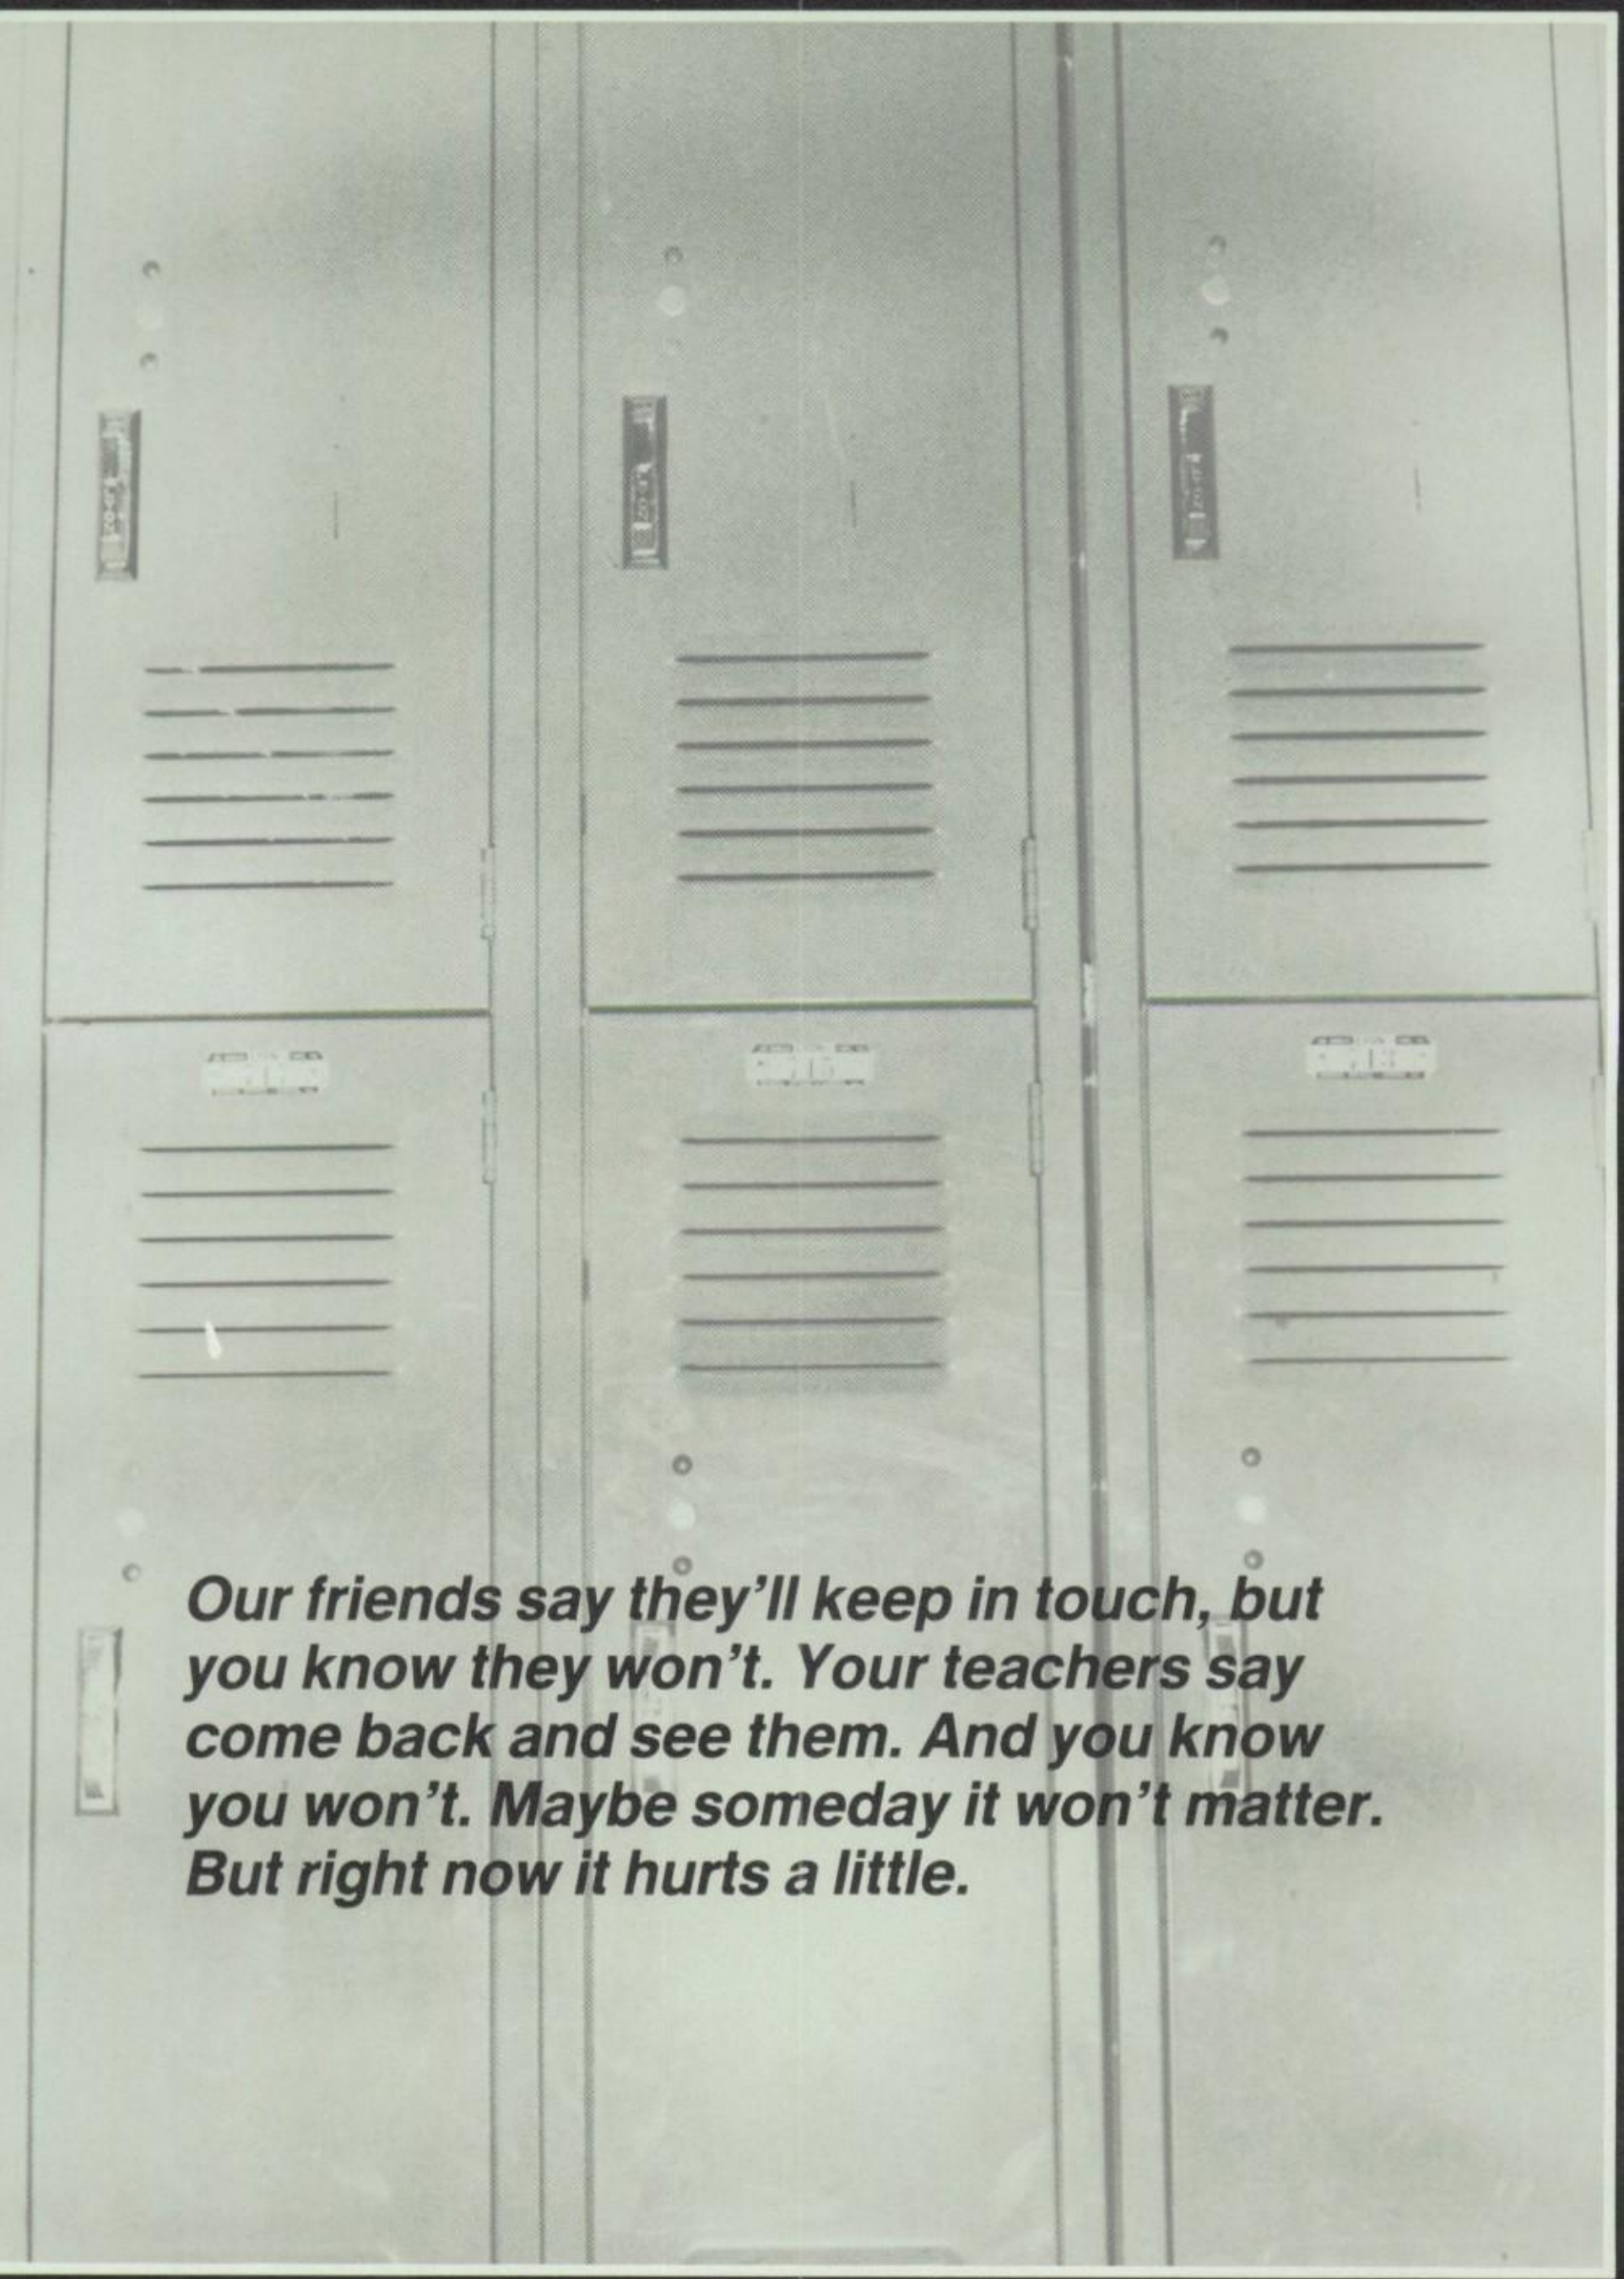
"We've Only Just Begun"

To you, Seniors, we say only two small, heartfelt words . . .

Good-Luck



Our friends say they'll keep in touch, but you know they won't. Your teachers say come back and see them. And you know you won't. Maybe someday it won't matter. But right now it hurts a little.
